

State-by-State Voting Information 2016

The 2016 General Election is Tuesday, November 8; there are other elections within many states. The table in this document contains state-specific information in an alphabetical list.

Register to vote by contacting your Secretary of State/Board of Elections either by phone to request that a registration form be mailed to you, or online — where you can print a form to mail in. Some states allow online registration (no mailed forms required). Registration deadlines vary by state.

If you intend to vote by mail — with a mail-in or absentee ballot — in many states you must submit your mail-in/absentee/vote-by-mail registration form as early as 45 days prior to the election. Mail-in ballots must be postmarked at least one day prior and/or received by Election Day; find state-specific requirements through the table below.

If you intend to vote in person — voter identification laws vary by state (see table). At the polls, you can request a reasonable accommodation or assistance to vote:

- Accessible Voting Units (AVUs): Available at voting centers 18 days prior to the election date. Every county must have at least one AVU at each voting center. AVUs must be wheelchair-accessible and screened from other voters to maintain privacy. An AVU presents your ballot on a monitor. You select choices by touching the screen, using a select wheel, or by using a tool. You can use headphones to listen to the text and prompts on your ballot. Most machines can also be fitted with sip-and-puff tools.
- Assistance voting your ballot: Anyone may assist you in voting your ballot, except your employer or union representative. At a voting center, you may ask for two election workers – one from each political party – to help you fill out your ballot. A person who has a guardian may still be able to vote and should not be turned away from a voting center by an election worker. Guardianship papers indicate if an individual has the right to vote.

If you need to report a problem, please contact Election Protection at 1-866-OUR-VOTE or help@866ourvote.org. Election Protection is a nonpartisan coalition that was formed to ensure that all voters have equal opportunity to participate in the political process.
